

MM Weeks 2-4 Experiment Guide

REVIEWING DATA

What experiment did you hope to run this week and how did that go?

What worked for you? What didn't?

What challenges did you run into?

What can you learn from your experiment so far—about yourself, your real wants, your Idol, or God?

LOOKING AHEAD

What do you want to keep in mind as you move into this new week?

Do you want to revise your experiment? (Perhaps adjusting to reality or incorporating something new from the MM meeting)

Can you help yourself remember your experiment? E.g., a sticky note, visual cue, cell phone alarm, etc.

Can you foresee any challenges this week, internal or external? Take a peek at your calendar too.

How might you meet them creatively? Do you need a Plan B?

OPTIONAL TOOLS

1. Prayer: Tell God what you really want in your life. Then ask Him to help you train with this new tool and to encourage you in the process.
2. Intervention: Help yourself process this week's experiment with a tap, TAT, or worksheet. A productive tapping statement might be, "My problem is I am training in mindfulness and meditation, and when I think of that I feel ____." (Example emotions: frustrated, hopeless, resentful, out of control, like I simply can't do it, anxious, afraid, encouraged, hopeful.)
