

KF25 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: After the reader has asked for comments or questions, allow the group a few seconds to respond. Then thank the reader and pick up the task of offering to the group specific discussion questions from the lesson question list.

“We offer our story and allow others to tell theirs”: The sharing time gives members a place to offer their story without being subject to evaluation, judgment, interpretations, redirections, corrections, or other impositions. If the sharing becomes a discussion, our stories get lost, and members lose the opportunity to practice listening to others without reacting or judging what another has said.

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you can ask the group if anyone else feels the same or has had a similar experience.
