

KF43 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: You are the facilitator, and you set the pace of the meeting. What qualities of other facilitators do you appreciate? Think about offering those qualities to your group. Begin with pep in your voice and some enthusiasm. Avoid pedantic or grave tones. Help the energy of the meeting flow and refresh. Members often come to meetings tired and weighed down. Offer some cheerful energy as a gift to all who attend.

The Toolbox training is a little long, so choose a confident and snappy reader!

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you can ask the group if anyone else feels the same or has had a similar experience.

Mindfulness and Meditation

- In what way has Alternate Nostril Breathing been helpful to you (ANB)?
- What helps you make the decision to meditate?
- What helps you when your mind is busy and bouncing around during meditation?
- What have you learned about listening to your body through KF training?

Toolbox

- How have your limitations guided you or invited you to trust God?
- When you think about past training experiences, what limitations were imposed on you in order to train you?
- How do you feel about the KF guidelines and limitations that help us manage the meetings?
- What one word or phrase describes your feelings about money—having it, budgeting it, using it, giving it?
- How has your financial giving changed since you've been in KF?
- What helps you manage your money?
- If you have experienced the slavery of debt, what did you do or what might you do to get free?
- Why do you think money issues are so wide-spread, historical, and so messy?
- What makes it hard to talk to others about the realities of our money?

Sharing

(You can ask any of the questions from the Toolbox or Meditation sections)

- Would anyone share what worksheet they used this week? What did you learn?
- What is possible for you since you've been training in KF that wasn't possible before?

Bible Teaching

- How do compulsive needs create debt in our souls and our community?
- What might be some examples of imagined limitations that drive people into greed?
- How do you determine if a limitation is real or imagined?
- What do you think of these two requests: "Keep deception from me" and "Give me more than enough but not more than I can handle"?
- How do we find out how much is enough and how much is too much?

Integration

(You can ask any of the questions from the previous sections)

- Would someone like to share an area of your life that is uncomfortable right now?

End of Meeting

- Would anyone like to share their experience of the meeting?
