

KF45 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: Announcing the time available for discussion before inviting the group to respond can come across as rigid and intimidating. The announcement wastes time. The group has the schedule and they can follow it. Try to guide the group in a relaxed, flexible, conversational style. Thirty seconds of extra discussion time here and there won't hurt the schedule, and you can always make it up during the sharing time.

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you might ask the group if anyone feels the same or has experienced something similar.

Mindfulness and Meditation

- How can a strong connection between our minds and bodies support our mission and glory?
- How did you feel after doing Alternate Nostril Breathing for 4 minutes?
- Has the hymn Great is Thy Faithfulness been meaningful to you in the past?
- In one or two words, how does the hymn Great is Thy Faithfulness make you feel?
- How could poor health, or other limitations, present to us new opportunities?

Toolbox

- How has your relationship with time changed since you've been in KF?
- Can anyone share a situation where they were able to do the MATH?
- Would anyone share their experience of the natural flow of the tide?
- What have you learned about planning margins in your schedule?
- How has recognizing your limitations made you more trustworthy?
- What do you find difficult about dealing with time?
- What helps you manage your time?

Sharing

(You can ask any of the questions from the Toolbox or Meditation sections)

- How do the limitations of the Meeting Preparation Guide help you communicate more efficiently and authentically?

Bible Teaching

- What are you learning about defending your MATH?
- What tends to steal or dissipate your time?
- How do you know when you are using your time well?
- What do you think it means to walk around mindfully, precisely, and sharp-sightedly?
- How do you know when you are fighting the current of life and are out of the flow?
- What would you like to incorporate into your life that will take some time?

Integration

(You can ask any of the questions from the previous sections)

- In what area of your life did you consider the limitation of time?

End of Meeting