

KF47 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: When you read the Toolbox notes, look for the skeleton statement: “When you say (or do) [. . .], I feel [. . .] because I believe that [. . .].” When you come to the [. . .], go ahead and say, “dot, dot, dot”. Hopefully, the group will understand that the dots invite them to fill in the details of their particular situation.

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you can ask the group if anyone else feels the same or has had a similar experience

Mindfulness and Meditation

- What have you learned through your KF training about events and your reactions to them?
- Define means to spoil or despoil something pure or beautiful. What kinds of things might go into us and defile us?

Toolbox

- How do you want to be approached when someone needs to express their reality?
- How would you fill in the statement: “When you say (or do) [. . .], I feel [. . .] because I believe that [. . .]”? Here are some examples:
 - “When you don’t tell me the truth, I feel irritable and anxious because I believe that you are hiding important information that I need.”
 - “When you can only see the negative side of this event, I feel discouraged because I believe that you don’t value my efforts.”
- What did your family teach you about sharing your reality with others?
- What helps you listen to others and strengthen your relationship with them?
- How might you use S-E-T with your children?

Sharing

(You can ask any of the questions from the Toolbox or Meditation sections)

- Would anyone share what worksheet they used this week? What did you learn?
- How do you feel when you are doing a worksheet?

Bible Teaching

- Can you give an example of how members in a community can steal from others or from God?
- In what ways have you begun to take responsibility for damage you have done?
- When you consider that your karis gifts to others are also karis gifts to God, how do you feel?

Integration

(You can ask any of the questions from the previous sections)

- In one word, how do you feel about your damaged relationships?
- What step might you take to repair your damaged relationships?
- Since KF training, how have your relationships changed?
