

KF8 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: As members present, jot down their names on the Facilitator Aid sheet. Distribute the introductions and lessons in whatever way is comfortable for you and helps the group feel secure. Ask if there are members who cannot or who prefer not to read. If the group is small, assign 2 or 3 introductions or lessons to the same member. There is no need to feel rushed in this process.

You might try assigning the lesson readers first. Here are some examples of how to assign introductions: “Judy, please read the introduction to Karis Circulation. John, please read the Karis Confession and Toolbox introductions . . . Are there any questions?” or, “Here are the introduction assignments. Judy, Karis Circulation. John, Karis Confessions and Toolbox introduction . . . Are there any questions?”

NOTE: In this lesson, there is extra reading after Karis Circulation, so be sure to go over the notes. If you notice that members are regularly sharing other people’s misorientation, read the paragraph (Optional) after Karis Confession.

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you can ask the group if anyone else feels the same or has had a similar experience.

Mindfulness and Meditation

- In what areas of your life have you noticed a growing courage?
- What ways of God are you learning at this time?
- When are you more mindful of God’s way of doing things – when you are in failure or in success?

Toolbox

- When do you recognize that your feelings are not trustworthy guides?
- What helps you endure your feelings without reacting to them?
- What have you learned from using the Two Paths Flowchart?

Sharing

(You can ask any of the questions from the Toolbox or Meditation sections)

- How are you learning to honor your feelings without allowing them to master you?
- What do you think about the idea that God has to reveal the problem before He can heal it?

Bible

- How would you describe the tension that comes from changing your choices?
- In one or two words, what do you imagine having a single spirit feels like?
- What do you find difficult about handling success?
- How has your idea of success changed since starting KF training?

Integration

(You can ask any of the questions from the previous sections)

- What does “living as a glorious creature serving the real God” look like for you?

End of meeting

- Would anyone like to share their experience of the meeting?
