

KF21 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: Let's consider the question, "Why can't we respond to another's sharing?" Offering feedback to someone's sharing causes confusion. If one member offers feedback, others might feel obligated to offer theirs. If everyone offers feedback, then minutes fly by without achieving the purpose of the sharing time, which is to teach the group to learn to listen to others and share their own story without judgment.

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you can ask the group if anyone else feels the same or has had a similar experience.

Mindfulness and Meditation

- In one or two words, describe what self-hate judgments you regularly make about yourself?
- How can self-hate be an invitation to explore?
- What are learning as you use the Self-Hate Massage?

Toolbox

- How does self-hate suppress your real power?
- In what ways do your shoulds and claims drive you and steal your free will?
- How can you now interpret your "mistakes"? What can "mistakes" do for you?
- In what ways do you externalize your self-hate onto everything and everyone connected to you?
- On what or on whom do the judgments of your self-hate tend to land?
- What helps you when you are in self-hate?

Sharing

(You can ask any of the questions from the Toolbox or Meditation sections)

Bible Teaching

- What idea or image from Psalm 23 is meaningful to you?
- How have the Shepherd's rod and staff helped you maintain an oriented path?
- In one or two words, what limitation is the most frustrating for you right now?
- How have your limitations been useful in protecting and guiding you?
- What tends to attract your envy when you look at other people's tables?

Integration

(You can ask any of the questions from the previous sections)

- What was your experience with the FAITH Process?
- Would anyone like to share a present limitation that came to mind?
- How have your reactions to this integration focus changed since you've been in training?

End of Meeting

- Would anyone be willing to share their experience of the meeting?
- Would any KF member like to share their experience with returning every year to the training?
