

KF24 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: When you divide the group for sharing and one group is larger than the other, make group #1 the larger group.

Readers: There are two place-names in the Bible lesson that may be difficult to pronounce. Aenon is pronounced as Ee-non and Salim is pronounced as Sa-leem.

In the Guidelines and Limitations we read, “We present ourselves authentically.” It makes it harder to present ourselves authentically if we know that there could be accolades or empty silence after we share or if we fear that others will try to talk us out of our authentic sharing with their ideas, feelings, knowledge, or logic. Many people have learned to share inauthentically as a performance to make an impression on others, or as an effort to defend their reality. They need training in honest self-expression and, also, a safe place to practice. The sharing time teaches us to share only our own healing and development without the need for a social reward or the fear of judgement. In KF, we train to be safe people who offer safety to the group. When others share their experience, we simply say “Thank you.”

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you can ask the group if anyone else feels the same or has had a similar experience.
