

KF50 Meeting Questions

Facilitator Tip: When a member shares something, it might encourage them and the group to hear from you a simple thank you. If everyone in the group responds during discussion times, the overlapping voices create chaos, but if the facilitator responds by thanking the person, the whole group can relax knowing that the facilitator has responded appropriately.

Ask whichever questions are of interest to you. After someone responds to a question, you can ask the group if anyone else feels the same or has had a similar experience.
