

T-A-T (Condensed Version)

Use the T-A-T to calm your emotions so that you can get clarity about the problem and find solutions.¹

With a single hand, place the ring finger and thumb on either side of the bridge of the nose, and the middle finger on the lower-middle forehead, about an inch higher than the area between the eyebrows. Assume this pose for each of the steps below:

Hold the pose for two minutes during each step. Between each step, pause and jot down a few words that will help you remember any thoughts, images, or experiences.

1. Choose an issue or problem.

Imagine a problem in your life. Use all your senses to feel the feelings about the problem. Rate the intensity of your discomfort on a scale of one to ten.

Take the pose again, and breathe.

2. Imagine what you would think and feel if you did not have this problem.

Take the pose again, and breathe.

3. Read the clearing statements aloud: "God, thank You for healing the origins of this problem." (Pause for 1 minute) "The origins of this problem are healing now." (Pause for 1 minute)

Take the pose again, and breathe.

4. Read the clearing statements aloud: "God, thank You for healing all the areas of my life, mind, and body that are misoriented by this problem." (Pause for 1 minute) "All the areas of my life, mind, and body that are misoriented by this problem are healing now." (Pause for 1 minute)

Take the pose again, and breathe.

5. Read the clearing statements aloud: "God, thank You for healing all the places in me that get something out of holding on to this problem." (Pause for 1 minute) "All the places in me that get something out of holding on to this problem are healing now." (Pause for 1 minute)

Take the pose again, and breathe.

6. Read the clearing statements aloud: "I forgive everyone and everything that I have blamed for this problem, including God and myself." (Hold the pose for 2 minutes, and breathe)

Take the pose again, and breathe.

7. Read the clearing statements aloud: "I ask forgiveness from everyone and everything that I have harmed by holding on to this problem, including God's purposes and my True Self." (Pause for 2 minutes)

Pause. Write down your thoughts and note how you feel right now about the problem. You might again rate the intensity of your discomfort on a scale of one to ten.
